

SWISS MALARIA GROUP: TECHNICAL EXCHANGE EVENT 2015

22nd April 2015, Mission 21, Basel.

ORGANISATION: SWISS TPH

PROGRAMME:

THE FUTURE OF SWISS ENGAGEMENT AGAINST MALARIA

Time	Programme
9:30	Keynote: Christian Lengeler and Edith Patouillard, Swiss TPH Key Malaria Developments and financing 2016 - 2020
9:50	Keynote: David Reddy, CEO MMV Latest trends and strategies for antimalarials - including access issues and new forms of chemoprophylaxis
10:10	Keynote: Blaise Genton, Swiss TPH and CHUV Malaria vaccine: whats new, what are our hopes for the coming 3 years?
10:30	Coffee
11.00	Panel: Opportunities and Limitations of integrated community actions in the fight against malaria <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Togo experience of Swiss Red Cross• The Tanzania experience of Solidarmed• Integrated vector management – Biovision
12.45	Lunch
14:00	Roundtable (members of SMG, plus Emmanuel Temu WHO/GMP) Key challenges to successful large-scale malaria control: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Insecticide resistance• Financing• Keeping political support for malaria control• Inter-sectoral collaboration

15.30	Coffee
	Inaugural Meeting
16:00	Swiss Malaria Group only: Inaugural meeting Swiss Malaria Group Association
18:00	Prosecco and Good Bye

Target audience: Swiss Malaria Group Members, National and international Public Health professionals, project leaders and researchers.

Date: 22 April 2015, 9:30-16:00

Venue: Mission 21, Bildungszentrum, Missionsstr. 21, 4055 Basel:

<http://www.bildungszentrum-21.ch/lage/>

Organisation and coordination: Swiss TPH together with Swiss Malaria Group

Registration: Swiss Malaria Group, please send your registration by email:

info@swissmalariagroup.ch

Deadline for Registration: 31th of March 2015

Please note: The official event will end at 16:00. From 16:00–18:00 the Inaugural meeting of the Swiss Malaria Group will take place. This meeting is only open for Swiss Malaria Group Members.